

Crosswalk Table for SEBS Public Health Majors Joint Participation in George H. Cook Scholars Program and Bloustein Honors Research Program

Program SEBS Student Elects for Primary Senior-Year Participation:	GHC Scholars Program (GHCSPP) (SEBS Public Health majors only)	BHR Program (BHRP) (SEBS Public Health majors only)
Does Student Make Formal Application to BHRP?	No	Yes
Students' Senior Year Registration:	Eligible student registers for and takes 11:554:487, 488; student does not take BHRP course.	Eligible student registers for and takes 10:775:493, 494; student takes the BHR course.
Thesis Timeline:	Student follows GHCSPP timeline exclusively.	Student follows GHCSPP timeline as primary, and integrates BHRP timeline.
Faculty Advisor:	Faculty Member from either SEBS or EJB serves as Mentor
Thesis Presentations/Oral Defenses:	Students following the GHCSPP will present at the G.H. Cook Scholars Symposium and Dinner Students following the BHR Program will present at the G.H. Cook Scholars Symposium and Dinner and at the Bloustein School's Thesis Defense and Poster Sessions
Thesis Binding and Archiving:	Student submits thesis in electronic (PDF) format to both GHCSPP and BHRP. For GHCSPP, student follows G.H.Cook Honors Thesis Format and uses GHCSPP cover sheet; For BHRP, student uses BHRP cover sheet and format as instructed in BHR course.	